THE UNIVERSITY COMMENCE. MENT.

At the Commencement this year an the surrounding country, and from more distant places.

On the 4th the exercises commenced, in the old "Bull Pen" in front of the rostrum, there being present a large number of the distinguished Alumni. Senator Thurman had been invited to deliver the society address, but was detained at Washington as President Pro Ten of the Senate, and great was the disappointment. But the Rev. Dr. Hoge of Richmond, Va, an eminent and brilliant Presbyterian Divine, had been invited to deliver the Baccalauraette Samon, and was present. He consented to fill Senator Thurman's place, which he did in an extempore address on the "Beauty and nobility of an unselfish lite." which gave great satisfaction.

The Hon. S. F. Phillips, the second law officer of the United States-the Solicitor General-delivered the address before the Alumni, giving eulogistic notices of the late B. F. Moore, the Hon. Hugh Waddell, Col. D. M. Carter, Judge Battle and the Hon. Lewis Bond of Tennessee The address is pronounced by those who heard it, to have been a most appropriate and satisfac tory production, as everything is to which Mr. Phillips addresses himself.

Then there was a meeting of the Alumni, and in the evening addresses by students of the Philanthropic and Dialectic Societies. There was one student who bore the redundant name of Marcus Cicero Stephens Noble, who made a speech on "National Unity."

Then there was a hop and a German later in the evening, where beauty, chivalry and youthful aspirations "tripped the light fantastic toc.

On the 5th, the great day, there was a procession, in which were many distinguished men, and the orations of the Education, the reporter of the Observer day last.

His peculiarly bandsome young face was earnest, his animation to genuine and his voice so rich that when he called upon the "wilds of the west and cypress swamps of the east to disgorge their ragged urchins" and lend them to the state to be civilized and educated we felt that it would take just such men as he to do the great work and work this

There seems to be a half suppressed feeling among the New Hampshire Republicans towards making William E. Chandler the next Senator. We wish we could believe he would be selected There are more than twenty good and prominent candidates already in that grab-bag, but if the legislature now in session at Concord shall select from out of it Mr. Chandler, they will get a Senator such as that state and the country needs in the times that are before us. It may be one of those things too good to believe, but his election would eminently fit the occasion.

The fact, that when the Warner silver bill had passed the House with its amendments it was impossible for the is the best evidence possible of the danger in a good deal of our present Congressional legislation. Some of the legislation of the present Congress is scarcely superior to those incongruous acts which are produced by inferior state legislatures where a decent till is spoiled by numerous and wild additions and inconsistent provisions, made carelessly. There is a good deal of that sort of legislation in the statutes of this state. If our national bear garden is to go on in this manner, not only will the people of the whole country be confused, but even the Supreme Court will be non-plussed.

The Democratic management in all the southern states where they have had control has been a wretched failurc. and other states their administration affairs has been simply contemptible. In Texas, that elysium of Democratic supremacy, it is equally bad. The San Antonio Free Press says: "The Democracy has had six years in which to ruin its own prospects and the state of Texas. No party ever made such complete shipwreck of itself in so short a time. It has overwhelmed the state with debt. It has imposed a hitherto undreamed of burden of taxation. It has ruined the free schools, robbed the school fund, and utterly destroyed all prospects of immigration. It has prostrated trade and traffic, and impoverished the whole people. It has driven capital out of the state, and done nothing to make good the deficit thus created. All these are facts that cannot be questioned and no Democratic sophistry can get around them. The people understand this, and are weary unto death of Democratic misrule."

HON. JOHN SHERMAN.

The fast increasing popularity of Hon. John Sherman makes his nomination for the next Presidency almost heroic stand he has taken for human rights, the elevation of the condition of the colored population of the south and the noble and successful efforts he has made in behalf of honest money, makes him to day 500,000 votes stronger in the country than any other candidate yet spoken of.

Mr. Sherman made a speech at he said: * * * * * * "The advantage in our country is that every man has a chance to fill the highest offices in our land if he is but diligent. In this republic there is no royal road to place. All law can do is to give all men an equal chance. Every man should have equal rights, and no distinction should be made between citizens. The black citizen, who has a heart and wife, has the same right to life and liberty as the haughtiest white man living. Every during the whole summer and fall. man who marches to the polls exercises the rights of a freeman and should be protected in that right, whether he lives in the swamps of Louisiana, or the sand barrens of Carolina, or this beautiful city. Democrats, Republicans, and Nationals should see that the United States, and not Louisiana, South Carolina, New York city, or any city, make laws which secure every man in the free enjoyment of one vote at every election, and no more. What we want is a fair election law, having additional barriers which will protect purity of elections, and not the repeal of those we now have. It will be said, why not and stupidities into which our incensed Congress, who exercise your political government. The people are not fools, Messrs Tuxhim, &c., Mr. Sherman remained on the field, and by his indomitable courage and able management the Republicans justly gained the day. What is called "back bone" by the politicians Mr. Sherman possesses more of than any man in this Union. His career as an office holder is unblemished, notwithstanding the fact that he has been in politics for the last twenty-five years, and has been honored by the most important offices in the gift of his state and the nation. And should he be elevated to the Chief Magistracy of the nation he will so conduct the affairs of state that the credit of the government will be at a premium, and the stars and stripes will be respected by all nations. And citizens of the United States will be protected in life, liberty and property on land or sea, or at home and abroad. Such a man should be President, and such a man the people will have.

THE NEW YORK HERALD ON THE SITUATION.

Mr. Nordhoff the Washington correspondent of the Herald is perfectly merciless in sarcasm on the Democratic leaders in Congress. He ridicules and denounces them without stint, and we ordinary reader of the Congressional suppose in doing it is uttering the reports to understand the terms of it, common sentiment about Washington and over the country. He says:

Those remarkable Democratic states. men who have so effectively mired their party flatter themselves to-day that they have discovered a way out of their troubles. After a great deal of private consultation they have reached the conclusion that the only way to catch Mr. Hayes is to sprinkle salt on his tail, and they respectfully request the country to keep very still while they try this experiment.

There is, as everybody sees who does not happen to be a Democratic statesman, just one way for the Democrats to get out of the mire into which they have walked, and that is to pass the Army and Legislative Appropriation claim before the country that they had established an issue for the next election. But instead of this simple and straightforward course they are preparing an elaborate plan to sneak out of their difficulty, the main demerits of which are, that in the first place it will not succeed, and in the next, if it did, it would only make them more contemptible than they already are.

"He'll have to sign that," a Demotriumph to your correspondent to-day, down, and we shall have carried the day after all." .

"But suppose he vetoes it, what then?" your correspondent asked.

"Then," replied this remarkable statesman; "then he will have no courts, no money for grand or petit jurors, or for the maintenance of federal prisoners, and so on."

And this is the great plan of the Democratic wise-acres-to sprinkle salt on folly cannot quite regard it merely as the war been a very strong man, one childish is to speak injuriously of the who could carry his own state against sense of real children. But the truth is any man of either party. But the the Democrats are at their witz' ends. An influential Western Democrat said to your correspondent a few days ago "We must get Hayes to sign something, if it is not much better than a blank sheet of paper. We dare not go home until he signs something for us.' And that seems to be the opinion of a good many of these demoralized states. men, who forced the extra session as Columbus, Ohio, in May last, in which the grancest piece of strategy of modern

> It is easy to see that the new Democratic plan has been twisted by the filibusters into a scheme to keep Congress here during the whole of June, in the hope that at the last moment the filibusters may yet secure their main object, which has been and is to refuse the appropriations, compel the President to call another extra session. and thus keep the country in turmoil They beguile the timid, moderate men with such silly plans, and waste days and weeks in appeals to them to do nothing rash, but, for heaven's sake, to keep the party together. But they never lose sight of their one object which is to sit until the 30th of June, and then adjourn without making the necessary appropriations. The Herald is if possible more merciless editorially in its ridicule than its correspondent. In .its main leader of Tuesday it excoriates these marplots as follows :

The egregious Democratic blunders leave the matter for the states to settle correspondent slashes his tomahawk known their will to cause the immefor themselves? My answer is this: make it reasonably certain that a party states do regulate the election of state | which is so demented has no reasonand municipal officers, but members of able chance of gaining control of the power in the national government, are and there is no reason for lamenting > for grave and grim denunciation. What harm can they do if they persist in their present folly? They have | ties of North Carolina there is a reasonat least done one good service. They have relieved the country from any further fear of a third term of General Grant, by emboldening the Republican party to believe that it can win an easy victory with any respectable candidate. Another election of General Grant seemed a formidable peril until the beginning of the extra session. The blunder of forcing President Hayes to call it, and the succession of blunders which have given him opportunities to make so much political capital by his vetoes, have converted the whole Res publican party into "stalwarts," and have infused into it such sanguine courage and confidence that the idea of running General Grant as a forlorn hope seems like a dream of the night after awakening. The Republicans have convinced themselves that they can succeed with any candidate, after such a series of Democratic follies as have been perpetrated; and our institutions are no longer exposed to the peril of a qualified Cæsarism. "All the tears lie in an onion" which the mass of our citizens will shed over such an escape. If Secretary Sherman or any man like him should be our next President no anxiety will be felt as to the perpetuity of our free popular institutions. The country should rather rejoice than lament over the Democratice blunders which relieve it from any further fears of the third term

No political party was ever in quite so ludicrous a plight as the Democratic party is at present. Since it has ceased to be dangerous the country can afford to laugh at and deride its follies. In the early part of this called session there was some reason to fear that Democratic desperadoes would with. hold the appropriations and disorganize the government, They dare not venture on this treasonable experiment their courage has "oozed out at the bills pure and simple and adjourn. If heels of their boots." Their present pearances, or, in the language of Burke, how they can "sneak out of difficulties into which they proudly strutted." President Hayes has the whiphand of them, and they know it. Their sole study is to find a means of granting the appropriations without exposing themselves to the derision of "backing down." They think it necessary to bring the President to some kind of terms, or seeming terms, and their do so it would be simply impossible for methods are as rational, as our correspondent aptly suggests, as the nursery fiction told to very young children that and comply with the law, when it says cratic statesman said with an air of any bird may be caught if you can only I must select only such persons as I get near enough to it to sprinkle a lit-"and then no body can say we backed the salt on its tail. President Haves is too old a bird to be captured by this ingenious and infantile method. In spite of all the Democratic squirming Congress will have to pass the appropriation bills as the only means of escaping something worse. Their wriggling is as laughable as it is pitiable; but we can perfectly understand why those who are kept in the malarious air of Washington to watch their a certainty. He has at all times since the President's tail. To say that it is the preposterous political comedy which it is. They have a keen perception of the farce, but what is sport to distant spectators may bring disease or death to them. Their predicament would be deserving of pity had they not made it for themselves. As it is, having sowed the wind they reap the whirlwing. Not only have these fool. ish Democrats failed in approaching the Presidential bird, but they actually possessed no salt to put on its tail had

The New York Herald. It has leaked out to-day that in the protracted meeting of the Joint Committee last night Senator Thurman made a very forcible and emphatic speech declaring that, of course, the appropriations must be passed; that it would be unpatriotic and disastrous to the Democratic party to refuse them that the army must be sustained and ecessary supplies voted, and he favored the passage of the appropriation bills pure and simple under any circumstances. The speech of Senator Thurman will have an important effect, especially as in the joint caucus to be held in a day or two he will, it is understood, lead off in the same direction. With Mr. Thurman on this ground it needs only that the southern men make diate adoption of a resolution to pass the appropriations without further de lay and adjourn.

The constitution of the United States is not a league, confederacy, or compact officers of the United States in the sense that the Constitution has expressly said that Congress may provide the mode of electing Congressmen."

In 1876 when the Democrats tried to that they will prevent a pack of political fools from having full sway in public affairs. The country is to be congratulated that so wild and reckless a set of schemers as the present Democratic trial to the several states, in their sovereign capacity, but a government proper, founded on the adoption of the people, and creating direct relations between itself and individuals.

—D, Webster's reply to Hayne. COLORED JURORS.

We all recollect the time when in this state it was an oren question ves in their true colors. They are whether the newly enfranchised colored fitter objects for pity and ridicule than people should testify as witnesses or sit on juries in our courts. That time has passed, and in nearly all the counable fairness in the selection of juries. The practice seems to be different in Virginia, and the colored people of that state are a good deal agitated on what they consider an infraction of their rights in that respect.

A committee of the colored citizens have prefered a petition to one George L. Christian, a Judge of the Hustings Court in Richmond, in which they ask him to make up his venire from the whole poll list. They do not seem to complain specially of the manner in which Judge Christian dispenses justice, but rather of the principle on which he does it, and say: What we desire is that you select as jurors all persons whose names shall appear upon the poll books. We do net ask for white men on the jury or for black men on the jury. We merely want you to select jurors from all the poll books of the city. We present this petition because we are citizens of Virpay our proportion of all the burdens appertaining to citizenship, and because ve believe that all citizens should be called on to assist in deciding all questions appertaining to the rights, liberties and lives of all citizens who may be called before the courts of our city.

This seems to be a sensible enough request but the Judge demurs to it, and refuses flatly to comply with their re-

In his reply to their petition he says There can be no question that the state has the right to prescribe the mode in which jurors are to be selected and summoned and trials conducted in its courts. This he sustains by numerous citations of high legal authorities, including Judges Marshall, Storey, Taney, Chase, Waite and all the judges and ext writers who are worth quoting, both before and since the adoption of the recent amendments to the federal constitution, and claims that the state of Virginia, having exclusive right to do so, has through its legislature conferred on him the duty of furnishing lists from which juries in his court shall be taken. He recognizes the equality of the colored people before the law and that they are "liable" to serve on juries, and says he will summon them which will enable him to comply with the best material for its proper enforce-He adds also: When I find that I can best do this by selecting colored jurors I will do so, but not till then. If I was disposed to me to select all persons entitled to serve, and whose names appear on the poll books, as prayed for in the petition, think well qualified to serve as jurors. There are hundreds in this city, both white and colored, that I have no opinion of one way or the other, that I never can nor never will select, knowing nothing of their qualifications. If I were to select some colored jurors now, with the hundreds of more intelligent while persons liable to jury duty that I know of to select from, such selection would be made simply because they were colored, and, as was well said by my predecessor, I would then be applying a test of qualification condemned by the spirit, at least, of the fourteenth constitutional amendment and Civil Rights bill.

And in conclusion says: As before stated I have in the past selected the best material that I could find liable to discharge the important trusts to be confined to them, and I exto do the same in the future. With an eye single to what I understand to be my duty under the law, and what I believe to be the best and highest interests of all classes in this community, I will file the petition and continue to put only such persons on the juries as I hink "well qualified," as the law requires me to do.

Jurors in this state are selected from such "persons only as have paid tax for the preceeding year, and are of good moral character, and of sufficient intelligence." The persons who are authorized by law to draw the jury are obliged to scrutinize the list, adding such as ought to be put on and dropping off such as are not properly qualified. On the whole, there is not much cause of complaint in this state in the matter of juries. It seems that the statutes in Virginia are so drawn as to put it in the power of the officials making up the jury list to exercise their own judgment or whim er prejudice. The demand of the Richmond colored men is undoubtedly a reasonable and

THE CONTAGIOUS DISEASE BILL

Congress has passed the quarantine law for which it ought to have due credit. The bill was induced by the terrors of the yellow fever and other epidemic diseases. Of course the bill is a complete assertion of the doctrine of national supremacy, and it was so strong in this respect that Bayard and Thurman and some other Democrats dodged and didn't vote for it. There was a pungent debate on the bill in the course of which Mr. Conger of Michigan made some pertinent observations on Democratic consistency:

Mr. Conger advocated the bill, which,

if it meant anything, meant that the Federal Government had supreme and absolute authority over the states. If state rights could interfere with the exercise of the omnipotent power of Congress to defend the people, let them come. Let those who advocated them bring in the right of states to forbid Congress from following the impulse of its nature. Let state rights men pass this bill and they would have passed the Rubicon. Let them pass this bill, which the scourge of pestilence compelled them to pass, for in no other way could they shut out the scourge of pestilence from the land, and they would have overstepped all their finely drawn distinctions. The friends of state rights ginia. We present this petition because | dare not make that question paramount we are taxpayers and are called on to when the lives of thousands of their fellow citizens were quivering in the balance between the doctrine of state rights and the power of the general fence out pestilence, government to disease, and death. Ten years ago, when he had first become a member of the Committee on Commerce, state rights men had become in obedience to the command of their constituents to urge appropriations for rivers and harbors, saying at the same time that they had been brought up to believe that the general government had no right to make such appropriations. The committee had said: "Then you canuot have the appropriations," and the gentle urging and the little petitions of their constituents at home had sapped the foundation of state rights in the minds of those immortal statesmen, and they had yielded the point. Laughter. He had for the last two rears looked with eager eves for a southern state rights Democrat who did not come to Congress and proclaim the right of the general government to appropriate for rivers and harbors, $300, 000 a year for the Big Kanawha, $250,-000 for the Little Kanawha. He was hankful, however, that he could point to two or three state rights men who, until now, had maintained the integrity of the state. He had one of them in In Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia they do this at once and without any study is simply how they can make the for such service when he deems it best his mind's eye now, but that one had further tomfoolery, they might even | nevitable surrender and still save ap. for the proper enforcement of the laws | no rivers in his district. He would hail the passage of this bill as not only saving from the plague thousands of lives but as redceming the country by

lence, that worse disease, that worse

plague-state rights.

The Senate having under consideration the bill making appropriations for the legislative, executive, and judicial expenses of the government, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1880, and for other purposes-The Hon. Z. B. Vance made a speech for other purposes, and started out with a plea of non est factum, to the school book charge made by Mr. Blaine, he then demurred to the manner in which the bill under consideration had been discussed, and then by way of illustration, entered his appearance as the Great American Joker, in the Halls of Congress, He then went on to find fault with the manner in which the Democratic party has been treated since the war, and wound up with a glorious panygeric in praise of the party to whom, to use his own words, "this country owes its chief glory and development, and have been the chief promoters of public economy and the enemies of corruption."

Zeb, was there any corruption in the halcyon days of Tweed & Co.? And who was the Attorney and confidential adviser of the Boss Ring Manager? Does the country owe any of its glory in saving the government, to the Democratic party? Were they promoting public economy when they were doing all in their power to destroy the property of the government? Z. B. then struck out into a logical deduction that is as absurd as it is nonsensical, and then told another anecdote, previous to striking out "for other purposes."

After telling a few more anecdotes, Leb. all at once recollects that he has iined the church, and quotes scripture, and wound up by saying that he wanted rest, that the country wants rest; "Rest from strife, rest from sectional conflict. rest from sectional bitterness, rest from inflamatory appeals." | Zeb, didn't you want rest in 1864? Did not the country want rest then as much as now? What were you doing to bring about that Most perfect state of felicity"?

Zebulon winds up with an appeal to he "God of all mercy and grace," which makes us agree with some of his Raleigh admirers, when they said that "Gov. Vance was an altered man,"-Bakersville Republican

The news of my discovery in this way spread from one person to another until I found mysell called upon to supply patients with medicine far and wide and I was induced to establish a laboratory for compounding and bottling the foot Bitters in large quantities, and I now devote all my time to this business.

Bitters in large quantities, and I now devote all my time to this business.

I was at first backward in presenting either myself or discovery in this way to the public, not being a patent medicine man and with small capital, but I am getting bravely over that. Since I first advertised this medicine I have been crowded with orders from druggists and country dealers, and the hundreds of letters I nave received from persons cured, prove the fact that no remedy ever did so much good in so short a time and had so much success as the Root Bitters. In fact, I am convinced that they will soon take the lead of all other medicines in use. Nearly one hundred retail druggists, right here at home in Cleveland, now sell Root Bitters, some of whom have already sold over one thousand bottles. Root Bitters are strictly a medicinal pre-paration, such as was used in the good old

They act strongly on the liver and kidneys, keep the bowels regular and build up the nervous saystem. They penetrate every part of the body, searching out every nerve, bone and tissue from the head to the feet cleansing and strengthening the foutain springs of life, hence they must reach all diseases by purification and nourishment.

POLITICAL.

The Greenbackers of Maine have put up a clean ticket on a distinct platform. Dennis Kearney held his Workingmen's Convention at San Francisco on Monday last.

The Iowa Greenbackers seem to be a crazy set. Brick Pomeroy is one of their chief managers, and they erdorsed Dennis Kearney.

The Democrats of Ohio have nominated General Thomas Ewing for Governor, and Gen. A. V. Rice for Lt. Governor, and a full state ticket. The Greenbackers met also at Columbus on the same day, Wednesday last, and nominated Gen. S. F. Cary for Governor, and Gen A. S. Piatt for Lt. Governor, and a clean state ticket. The character of the ticket indicate cooperation between the Dan ocrats and Greenbackers.

The National Republican says:

The job was in the keeping of Senator Whyte and Congressman Singleton. the chairman of the Committee on Printing in their respective Houses. Senator Whyte had a Baltimore ring to serve, while Singleton is susceptible to influences such as ringsters know how to wield skillfully, and he knows how to accept gracefully. In this way the job was captured and conferred upon a Mr. Bell, of Baltimore-in other wise the Baltimore Bell won the prize. That the affair is crooked there can be no doubt when the facts are known. The contract has been awarded to the Bell ring at $1.25 per 1,000 ems, a rate which will aggregate all the way from $5,000 to 15,000, according to the length Best of Wines, Liquors and Ulgars of the session and the voluminousness of the proceedings.

The joint Democratic caucus have agreed on passing the three appropriation bills with the following reservations:

First-The Legislative bill of last year, with no political riders, but with the MacMahon proposition for paying the arrears of pensions out of the special fund for the redemption of fractional currency. Second-A bill for expenses of court, SOL BEAR & BROS. which provides specifically for all cases, but makes no provision for the pay of supervisors or election marshals. It will also declare that none of the money appropriated shall be used for the payment of any persons appointed under title 26 of the Revised Statutes, which refers to supervisors and marshals of elections, and that no money appropriated in the bill for one purpose shall be used for any other purpose. Third-The Army bill, with a provision that no money appropriated shall be used for the subsistence or transportation of troops "to be used as a police force to keep the peace at the polls."

Caring for her Mistress. From the Columbus (Ga.) Enquirer, May 21, We were told of a noble instance of devotion of a colored woman for her former mistress. Mrs. Elizabeth Rogers. aged 73 years, died yesterday. In antebellum days she was well-to-do, and owned a number of slaves; but, as thousands of others, lost her all by the war. Among the slaves were a family of ne-groes whom Mrs. Rogers raised as she would her own children, and they were very much attached to her. The case of devotion which was told us was of one of this family, Laura Mitchell, who is will known in our city as a nurse, At present she is in the employ of Mr. C. E. Hoghstrasser, and is a faithful servant. For 14 long years Laura has supported her old mistress. Her wages rarely amounted to more than $10 per month, and she has always given the whole to Mrs. Rogers. When in need of money herself, she would go to the old mistress and see if she could spare it. The dying charge of Laura's mother was "care for old missus," and faithfully she has done her duty. Laura employed a girl to wait upon Mrs. Rogers, as she could not do that duty herself, which there's not a doubt would have been more than a pleasure. At the news of her death, Laura was overwhelmed with grief, and not, as would be supposed, glad she had got rid of an incumberance. In this light she was never looked upon, but with the tenderest love a child could possess for a mother the old lady's warts were administered to by this colored woman. Not only did Laura purchase the coffin and bear the funeral to go to the house and take a photograph of old mistress. Senator Chandler's last: The Washington (D. C.) Post (Dem.) accused Senator Chandler of being drunk when he was delivering his late speech in the Senate chamber, and then circulated the story that the Senator was going to age the editor for libel. Mr. Chandler was going home from Sunday School and found himself in unpleasant association with a skunk. The boy threw his Bible at the skunk, but he spoilt his book and did not hurt the animal.

MEXICAN Mustang Liniment,

FOR MAN AND BEAST.

This limiment very naturally originated in America, where Nature provides in her laboratory such urprising antidotes for the maladies of her chiluntil now it encircles the habitable globe. The Mexican Mustang Liniment is a matchless emedy for all external ailments of man and beast. To stock owners and farmers it is invaluable. A single bettle often saves a human life or restores the usefulness of an excellent horse, ox, cow, or sheep. It cures foot-rot, hoof-ail, hollow horn, grub, screw-worm, shoulder-rot, mange, the bites and stings of poisonous reptiles and insects, and every such drawback to stock breeding and bush life.

It cures every external trouble of horses, such as lameness, scratches, swinny, sprains, founder, wind-gall, ring-hone, etc., etc. The Mexican Mustang Liniment is the quickest cure in the world for accidents occurring in the family, in the absence of a physician, such as burns, scalds, sprains, cuts, etc., and for rheumatism, and stiffness engendered by exposure. Particularly valuable to Miners. It is the cheapest remedy in the world, for it penetrates the muscle to the bone, and a single application is generally sufficient to cure. Mexican Mustang Liniment is put up in three sizes of bottles, the larger ones being proportionstely much the cheapest. Sold everywhere. february 1 ly R

American Horses in England.

From the Pall Mall Gazette, May 21. The American and other horses from abroad should occasionally win our races is no wonder; the wonder would be if they did not. And the wonder will be greater if they do not win more and more. We must expect to reap as we sow, and we have been sowing our best thoroughbred seed all over the world for a century or more. One might marvel that the Russians have not yet joined with other foreigners in carrying identification, from which circumstance off our biggest prizes with their own native produce obtained from animals purchased in our market; for the Russians and the Americans, if we examine the records, were among our earliest an extent of about seven acres, surcustomers to any noticeable extent be- rounded by a massive stone wall. The fore the French and the Germans and the Austrians and the Hungarians began to bid with anything like freedom for our blood-stock. The fact is, that which the national colors are daily disthe Americans have for some genera-tions preparing a breed of horses to the Americans have for some generations preparing a breed of horses to whip all creation; and if they had not taken principally to trotting it is not improbable that they would have galloped away with the Britisher's blue ribbon even before Starke carried off the Goodwood Cup, which was long before Brown Prince ran second for the Two Thousand Guineas, and Parole paralyzed the patrons of handicaps. Nobody will be surprised to learn that the southerners apparently began the importation of our horse-flesh; they began before there was any star spangled banner; and Virginia was early among the purchasers. To Virginia went after-

SENATOR RANSOM ON RACING.

[Special to the Baltimore Gazette.] Washington, May 22 .- "Wrong to adjourn the Senate over for the races?" queried Senator Ransom to-day indignantly. "No! my boy," (the fire of the his keen black eyes,) "anything else and her every struggle, he is one of would have been provincial! I remember distinctly when I was a boy seeing the caricatures of Van Buren when he was running for the Presidency in 1836. They represented him on a horse behind Jackson, and the story was founded on what actually took place when he and Old Hickory were riding out to the races. Van Buren was a short man, and not being much of a jockey he could not get along with his horse, so Jackson said "Van, come up behind me," and Why, he imported the ancestor of Parole, a fact that may not be generally think to about 1808, John Randolph not only loved horses but he rode his own at the Charleston races of that vear in a four-mile dash against the famous Col. Singleton. The old man was never distinguished for his personal beauty, while his horse was, and this prompted the ladies to nettle the old ngly jockey. There's Hampton sitting there nursing his stump of a leg. He has the horse mania as bad as his father before him. Adjourn the Senate? Why, certainly! Adjourn everything for a first-class race!'

Among the most noteworthy of the recent mementoes of the war is the memorial ebelisk erected at Salisbury, N. THE GENUINE DR. C. McLANE'S

Celebrated American WORM SPECIFIC

SYMPTOMS OF WORMS.

THE countenance is pale and lead-I en-colored, with occasional flushes, or a circumscribed spot on one or both cheeks; the eyes become dull; the pupils dilate; an azure semicircle runs along the lower eye-lid; the nose is irritated, swells, and sometimes bleeds; a swelling of the upper lip; occasional headache, with humming or throbbing of the ears; an unusual secretion of saliva; slimy or furred tongue; breath very foul, particularly in the morning; appetite variable, sometimes voracious, with a gnawing sensation of the stomach, at others, entirely gone; fleeting pains in the stomach; occasional nausea and vomiting; violent pains throughout the abdomen; bowels irregular, at times costive; stools slimy, not unfrequent-ly tinged with blood; belly swollen and hard; urine turbid; respiration occasionally difficult, and accompanied by hiccough; cough sometimes dry and convulsive; uneasy and disturbed sleep, with grinding of the teeth; temper variable, but generally irritable, &c.

Whenever the above symptoms are found to exist,

DR. C. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE will certainly effect a cure.

IT DOES NOT CONTAIN MERCURY in any form; it is an innocent preparation, not capable of doing the slightest injury to the most tender infant.

The genuine Dr. McLane's VER-MIFUGE bears the signatures of C. McLane and Fleming Bros. on the -:0:--

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS

are not recommended as a remedy "for all the ills that flesh is heir to," but in affections of the liver, and in all Bilious Complaints, Dyspepsia and Sick Head-ache, or diseases of that character, they stand without a rival.

AGUE AND FEVER.

No better cathartic can be used preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. As a simple purgative they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated. Each box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression Dr. McLane's LIVER PILLS.

Each wrapper bears the signatures of C. McLane and Fleming Bros. Insist upon having the genuine Dr. C. McLane's Liver Pills, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but

It does not take its cue from the utterances of any politician or political organization. It gives its support unreservedly when men or measures are in agreement with the Constitution and with the principles upon which this Republic was founded for the people. Whenever the Constitution and Constitutional principles are violated—as in the outrageous conspiracy of 1876, by which a man not elected wfis placed in the President's office, where he still remains—it speaks out for the right. That is the Sun's idea of independence. In this respect there will be no change in its programme for 1879.

The sun has fairly earned the hearty hatred of rascals, frauds, and humbugs of all sorts and sizes. It hopes to deserve that hatred not less in the year 1879, than in 1878, 1877, or any yerr gone by. The SUN will continue to shine on the wicked with un-

The present disjointed condition of parties in this country, and the uncertainty of the country is a country of the country of the country is a country of the country of the country is a country of the country of future, lend an extraordinary significance to the events of the coming year. The dis-cussions of the press, the debates and acts of Congress, and the movements of the leaders in every section of the Republic will have a direct bearing on the Presidential election of 1880—an event which must be regarded with the most anxious interest by every patriotic American, whatever his political ideas or allegiance. To these elements of interest may be added the pro-bability that the Democrats will control
